

Unconscious Bias Training | Recognize and Address Hidden Biases in the Workplace

Everyone has unconscious or implicit biases – it's part of human nature and the brain's need to categorize huge amounts of information. However, if left unchecked, unconscious biases and stereotypes can create an unhealthy work environment and lead to discriminatory behavior. Unconscious bias training is one positive step organizations can take to recognize and address hidden biases that can influence workplace decisions.

EDUCATE | MOTIVATE | INFLUENCE

Traliant's Unconscious Bias training is a 20-minute course focused on raising awareness of unconscious bias and steps individuals can take to prevent biased attitudes and behaviors from interfering with workplace decisions and interactions. As part of a comprehensive approach to behavior-based Diversity & Inclusion training, this course will train your staff to both understand and manage their hidden biases and assumptions and create a more positive, diverse workplace.
